

President Delighted by Mexico Trip

Plans New Talks;
Tuthill Is Named
Envoy to Brazil

By William Chapman
Washington Post Staff Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 18—President Johnson, buoyed by his Mexican visit, announced plans today for two more meetings with President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz and a possible Central American tour by Mrs. Johnson.

He also named John W. Tuthill as Ambassador to Brazil, a post vacant since January, when Lincoln Gordon became Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs.

Reports from the LBJ ranch today portrayed the President as still ebullient over his Mexico City welcome. Greatly Pleased.

"To say that he was pleased is an understatement," said his Press Secretary, Bill D. Moyers.

For three ecstatic hours on Thursday night the cares of the home front and of Vietnam were washed away in the roar of crowds estimated at 2 million.

The crowds' stimulant had him up at 7 a.m. Friday morning putting more "life" in a prepared speech, adding passages filled with reflections on what he had seen in the faces lining the motorcade route.

And it had him bubbling with plans for the United States and Mexico. In a long talk with Diaz Ordaz, these new projects were discussed.

A verbal agreement to expand the number of cultural stage stars and symphonies arrangements for Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to visit Mexico to discuss cotton production and marketing problems.

An indefinite invitation to meet Diaz Ordaz on the Mexico-Texas border for a tour of Big Bend park and discussion of common development of the Rio Grande.

A formal state visit to Mexico by Mr. Johnson.

A poverty program for border communities.

Moyers said the prospect of a trip by Mrs. Johnson to "several Central and possibly South American countries" came up when Diaz Ordaz described his tour of Central America this year. No dates were discussed for either the President's or Mrs. Johnson's travel plans.

Meanwhile, in New York, Arthur J. Goldberg, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, announced that he will make an extensive trip in several Latin American countries this summer. Goldberg said the details of his tour were still being arranged.

Mr. Johnson apparently was deeply impressed with his host. "The more I see of Diaz Ordaz, the more I like him," Moyers quoted him as saying. Moyers said the President regarded the trip as a significant step forward in U.S. relations with Mexico and the other nations of Latin America.

Specifically, Mr. Johnson believes his visit accelerated movement toward a summit meeting of the Alliance for Progress nations, Moyers said.

That conference, which Mr. Johnson said rose to in his speech Friday, appears to be at least a year away. The President is insistent on the need for careful preparation before the chiefs of state get together.

The preparations, Moyers said, would begin with study of the program agreed on by economic ministers at Buenos Aires last month. That program runs the gamut of economic problems—stimulating private savings, tax reform measures, expanding trade, pressing for economic integration of Alliance nations, agricultural development.

The President feels that preparation for the meeting is a serious undertaking in itself, Moyers said.

The new Ambassador to Brazil, Tuthill, was chosen because he is both a diplomat and an economist, Moyers said, and was at the top of selection lists submitted by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and the chief White House talent scout, John W. Macy.

Tuthill, a career Foreign Service officer, has been U.S. representative to the European Economic Community in Brussels since 1962. An All-America football player at William and Mary College in 1931-32, he holds a master's degree in economics from Harvard. He has been both economic counselor at the U.S. Embassy in Paris and director of the Office of European Regional Affairs in the State Department.

For a year before his present assignment in Brussels, Tuthill was U.S. representative to the Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development with the personal rank of Ambassador.

(JOHNSON)

SAN ANTONIO, TEX.--PRESIDENT JOHNSON CONSIDERS THE SUCCESS OF HIS 24-HOUR VISIT TO MEXICO A "SIGNIFICANT STEP FORWARD" IN U.S. RELATIONS WITH LATIN AMERICAN AND A STEPPING STONE TOWARD A HEMISPHERIC SUMMIT CONFERENCE TO PROMOTE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ADVANCES.

BUT BECAUSE OF THE EXTENSIVE GROUNDWORK THAT MUST BE LAID FOR A MEETING OF CHIEFS OF STATE, PRESS SECRETARY BILL D. MOYERS TOLD NEWSMEN TODAY IT WOULD TAKE AT LEAST A YEAR TO GET READY FOR IT.

JOHNSON, IN MEXICO CITY YESTERDAY, PROMISED TO WORK WITH OTHER GOVERNMENT HEADS TO BRING ABOUT SUCH A MEETING.

MOYERS SAID JOHNSON BELIEVES A STARTING POINT FOR PREPARATIONS SHOULD BE THE "ACTION PROGRAM" AGREED UPON IN MARCH BY ECONOMIC MINISTERS OF THE AMERICAS. THE PRESIDENT SEES A NEED FOR STUDIES ON HOW ITEMS IN THAT PROGRAM, AIMED AT WIDESCALE ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENTS MIGHT "BE MOVED FORWARD AT A FASTER PACE THROUGH INITIATIVES OF CHIEFS OF STATE."

AS OTHER OUTGROWTHS OF JOHNSON'S WHIRLWIND "NEIGHBORLY CALL" IN MEXICO CITY, WHICH LASTED FROM 6:30 EST THURSDAY TO 6 P.M. YESTERDAY MOYERS ANNOUNCED:

--JOHNSON AND MEXICAN PRESIDENT GUSTAVO DIAZ ORDAZ HAD AGREED TO MEET ON THE TEXAS BORDER TO SURVEY THE AMISTAD DAM, A JOINT MEXICAN-AMERICAN PROJECT UNDER CONSTRUCTION ON THE RIO GRANDE NEAR DEL RIO, TEX., AS WELL AS TO TOUR THE BIG BEND NATIONAL PARK. THEY WOULD LOOK AT THAT AREA, RECENTLY VISITED BY MRS. LYNDON B. JOHNSON, TO "MAKE A COMMON ASSESSMENT OF FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF THAT AREA FOR THE RECREATIONAL BENEFIT OF THE PEOPLE OF BOTH COUNTRIES."

--AGRICULTURE SEC. ORVILLE L. FREEMAN WILL VISIT MEXICO TO CONSULT WITH HIS MEXICAN COUNTERPART ON QUESTIONS OF COTTON MARKETING AND PRODUCTION, MATTERS ABOUT WHICH MOYERS SAID JOHNSON TOLD DIAZ ORDAZ "WE HAD MUCH TO LEARN FROM THE MEXICANS."

--THE PRESIDENTS "AGREED TO INTENSIFY VISITS, NORTH AND SOUTH, OF STATE AND SCREEN STARS, SYMPHONIES, ETC." AND OTHERWISE PROMOTE CULTURAL EXCHANGES BETWEEN THEIR COUNTRIES.

MOYERS RELAYED TO REPORTERS THE REACTIONS HE SAID HE OBTAINED FROM JOHNSON IN LENGTHY CONVERSATIONS LAST NIGHT, AFTER THE PRESIDENT'S ARRIVAL BACK AT HIS TEXAS RANCH, AND THIS MORNING.

MRS. JOHNSON FLEW BACK TODAY AFTER ATTENDING OTHER CEREMONIES ARRANGED WHEN SHE HAD BEEN SCHEDULED TO MAKE THE TRIP WITHOUT HER HUSBAND, TO DEDICATE THE $150,000 STATUE OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. 4-16-66

SUBJECT: VISIT TO MEXICO CITY OF
PRESIDENT AND MRS. LYNDON B. JOHNSON
APRIL 14 - 16, 1966
FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS

On 4/14/66, [redacted] Legal Attache,
Mexico City, advised Night Supervisor [redacted]
Domestic Intelligence Division, as follows:

President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson arrived in Mexico City on schedule 4/14/66. There was a large crowd on hand at the airport and along the route to the Presidential Palace. The crowd was estimated at slightly over two million people.

The entire Diplomatic Corps, including the Soviet Ambassador, was on hand at the airport to greet the Presidential Party. There was a large number of union members and bus loads of students at the airport, although these groups were friendly. As a whole the crowd at the airport and the people along the procession route were very friendly and gave the President a warm reception. There were no significant incidents, although two groups of small boys who were shouting something unintelligible before the procession arrived were dispersed by the police.

Speeches at the airport lasted longer than were scheduled and this fact, coupled with a slow moving procession, caused by crowding around the Presidential vehicle delayed the procession until after dark. This apparently made the Secret Service men somewhat apprehensive, particularly since the President was riding in an open car. At the Main Plaza, the Presidential car was stopped because of large crowds and there was some handshaking on the part of the President. The Party arrived at the Presidential Palace at about 9:10 pm (Mexico time), which was about 1½ hours behind schedule. Otherwise the arrival and procession went according to plan.

I talked with Legal Attache [redacted] this morning in Mexico City. I advised him we had been in touch with Secret Service and that [redacted] of that Service will be in charge of the Secret Service men and responsible for the direct protection of the President and Mrs. Johnson in Mexico City. I told him to be sure to set up immediate liaison with [redacted] as well as [redacted] who will also be in Mexico City. [redacted] said he had been in liaison with Special Agent Johnson of Secret Service who had the responsibility for making advance planning.

[redacted] said that the Agents on special assignment are starting to arrive in Mexico City and that he is working out assignments for them in line with the Director's instructions to be of maximum usefulness to the over-all protection of the President. As instructed by the Director, they will be available for emergency duty to assist in the dissemination of information, and physical protection of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson if a request in this connection is received from the Agent in Charge of the Secret Service detail.

He was instructed to continue close liaison with the above-named persons. [redacted]

[redacted] and others having an interest in this over-all situation. He was told to fully brief the men on special assignment on conditions which will exist in Mexico in order to be sure that the Bureau Agents are of assistance and that nothing happens which would in any way be embarrassing to the Bureau.

MEXICO CITY--THE LEFTIST MAGAZINE POLITICA SAID TODAY "THE MEXICAN CONSTITUTION WAS SUSPENDED" FOR THE RECENT VISIT OF PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

IN AN ALL-OUT ATTACK ON THE VISIT, THE FORTNIGHTLY PUBLICATION SAID MEXICAN PRESIDENT GUSTAVO DIAZ ORDAZ "IS HARD PUT TO EXPLAIN THE IMPERIAL VISIT." IT IMPLIED THAT THE JOHNSON VISIT WAS PRE-ARRANGED AS "A SURPRISE."

GOVERNMENT ORDERS PROHIBITED ANY ANTI-JOHNSON DEMONSTRATIONS, AND GROUPS SHOUTING AGAINST JOHNSON DURING HIS PARADE WERE CHASED AND ARRESTED BY POLICE, THE MAGAZINE ADDED.

IT ASSERTED THAT "A LARGE GROUP" OF STUDENTS SEIZED THE NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF MEXICO RADIO STATION AND BROADCAST ATTACKS AGAINST THE U.S. ACTIVITY IN VIET NAM AND THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC.

(THE ONLY HOSTILE DEMONSTRATION PREVIOUSLY REPORTED OCCURRED IN JALAPA, CAPITAL OF THE STATE OF VERACRUZ, WHERE 500 STUDENTS BURNED A U.S. FLAG AND AN EFFIGY OF UNCLE SAM.)

POLITICA SAID THE POLICE DEPARTMENT "SPECIAL FORCE" HAD ORDERED HEADS OF LEFTIST PARTIES TO HIS OFFICE. THERE, IT ADDED, HE TOLD THEM THAT "BY PRESIDENTIAL ORDERS, ALL SOCIAL POLITICAL AND OPINION GUARANTEES WERE SUSPENDED" DURING THE VISIT OF PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) planned to place a United States flag impregnated with inflammable material in a tree near the site of the unveiling of the Lincoln statue. Later, one of the "Trotskyites" planned to set fire to that flag. (S)

(U)

Women of the Union Nacional de Mujeres Mexicanas (UNMM - National Union of Mexican Women) planned to carry out their previous program of appearing at the site of the unveiling of the Lincoln statue dressed in black and attempt to hold up signs to protest United States involvement in Vietnam.
T-1 stated that the Mexican police were familiar with the

(U) The "Trotskyites" probably refers to members of the Partido Obrero Revolucionario (POR - Revolutionary Workers Party) which is active at UNAM. (X)

T-2 and T-3, who have furnished reliable information in the past, on April 16, 1966, made the following resume of incidents during the travel of President LYNDON B. JOHNSON from the Mexico City International Airport to Los Pinos, home of President GUSTAVO DIAZ ORDAZ of Mexico:

In front of the Benito Juarez hemicycle, Mexico, DF, about 200 students from UNAM shouted, "Johnson out of Mexico," "Johnson - Murderer," and "Yankes out of Vietnam." These students were dispersed by agents of the Judicial Police in Mexico, DF, and by agents of Special Services, Metropolitan Police Department.

When the Presidential retinue passed the corner of Insurgentes and Paseo de la Reforma, another group of students from the National Polytechnic Institute (IPN) shouted similar phrases. These students were quickly dispersed by grenadiers and by agents of Special Services of the Metropolitan Police Department.

Mexico
Just before the Presidential retinue passed in front of the United States Embassy, a group of students from UNAM, headed by MANUEL AGUILAR MORA, leader of Trotskyite groups at UNAM, attempted to distribute propaganda protesting the visit of President JOHNSON to Mexico. MANUEL AGUILAR MORA was detained momentarily but released by agents of Special Services of the Metropolitan Police Department, and his followers were quickly dispersed, but not before a number of the agitators were struck by police officers.

(U) T-1 advised that the propaganda which MANUEL AGUILAR MORA attempted to distribute consisted of "flyers" containing the letterhead of POR. (X)

Many Cuban exiles lined the streets carrying signs and flags of their country. The signs protested the "communist meddling" in their country. These signs were confiscated by police officials.

VISIT OF PRESIDENT AND MRS. JOHNSON

At about 3:30 p.m. on April 14, 1968, a group of students tried to stage a meeting in front of the Benjamin Franklin Library but were unsuccessful because of the great number of police who were present.

T-4, T-5, T-6, T-7, and T-8, who have furnished reliable information in the past, provided the following summary relative to the visit of President LYNDON B. JOHNSON to Mexico:

Students of UNAM and IPN, mentioned above, were identified by these sources as students who were organized by the Juventud Comunista de Mexico (JCM - Communist Youth of Mexico) and the Student Committee Pro-Vietnam at UNAM. These sources provided substantially the same data as T-2 and T-3 concerning the incidents which occurred along the route traveled by President JOHNSON and his party.

On April 15, 1968, a group of communist students attempted to approach the park where the statue of Lincoln was being unveiled but were intercepted and dispersed by police officials.

A group of JCM members met at about 5 p.m. on April 14, 1968, to form brigades of young women to distribute about 2,000 "flyers" prepared by the Federal District Committee of the Partido Comunista Mexicano (PCM - Communist Party of Mexico) and which contained pictures of "Lincoln" and "Juarez." They then joined other students of the Student Committee Pro-Vietnam to shout insults at President LYNDON B. JOHNSON and his party as described above. (C)

(U)

On the evening of April 14, 1968, a group of communist students from the School of Economics and the School of Political Science, UNAM, appeared at the UNAM radio station. They requested time to announce the end of a student strike and the resumption of classes at UNAM. Instead of following their announced plan, however, they launched attacks against President LYNDON B. JOHNSON concerning the invasion of the Dominican Republic and Vietnam. The office of the rector of UNAM has ordered an investigation of this incident.

VISIT OF PRESIDENT AND MRS. JOHNSON

The UNAM was unable to stage any activity as scheduled because of the close surveillance of police officials.

Offices of the PCM, Frente Electoral del Pueblo (FEP - People's Electoral Front), Central Campesina Independiente (CCI - Independent Peasants Central), Movimiento Revolucionario de Magisterio (MRM - Revolutionary Teachers Movement), Movimiento de Liberacion Nacional (MLN - National Liberation Movement), and other communist-oriented groups were under close surveillance during the visit of President JOHNSON in Mexico.

Wide newspaper coverage was afforded all activities during the visit of President LYNDON B. JOHNSON to Mexico. An enthusiastic crowd of between one million and two million people turned out along the streets to give President JOHNSON, his wife, and other members of the party a friendly welcome. The Mexican police afforded excellent security.

Dear General Cueto Ramirez:

May I take this occasion to tell you how much I appreciate your diligent personal attention and the fine performance of your staff in maintaining security during the recent visit to your city by the President and Mrs. Johnson. Your splendid efforts to safeguard the Presidential party mean much to me, and I am encouraged by the outstanding spirit of cooperation which has existed between your Department and this Bureau. From such trust and confidence surely only mutual benefit can result for our countries.

It is suggested that the Director may wish to send a letter of appreciation to General LUIS CUETO RAMIREZ, Chief of the Mexico City Metropolitan Police, who had primary responsibility for directing local security forces during the captioned visit.

In spite of short notice the General and his staff performed a superb organizational effort insuring security for the Presidential party. This is demonstrated by the fact that there were no incidents to mar this visit. He and personnel under his direction cooperated splendidly with this office and other interested U. S. agencies. The manner in which General CUETO and his organization handled this matter contributed materially to enhancing the welfare and reputation of his country and in the further cementing of cordial relations between Mexico and the United States.

It is noted that General CUETO is a warm admirer of the Director and the Bureau and an important and helpful contact of this office.

When SA [redacted] of this office arranged for General CUETO to meet the President, the President commented to the General that Mr. HOOVER had assured him that General CUETO could be relied upon to handle the security measures for this visit, which pleased the General enormously.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

b1

I thought you might be interested in the following aspects of the recent visit of President and Mrs. Johnson to Mexico.

The President's visit was very well-received by the Mexican public and he definitely succeeded in stimulating good will toward the United States. In a meeting with the entire Embassy staff yesterday to thank them for their assistance in the President's visit, Ambassador Fulton Freeman stated that according to one of the Mexican Cabinet officers the enthusiasm generated during the visit of President Kennedy was due to his magnetic personality while the enthusiasm generated during the visit of President Johnson was for the United States, thereby implying that it was more permanent.

The two principal public and semipublic functions during the visit of President and Mrs. Johnson were the unveiling of the Lincoln Statue and the reception given at the Ambassador's residence by Mrs. Johnson in honor of the wife of President Diaz Ordaz after President Johnson's departure.

The ceremony at the Lincoln Statue was very impressive and the comparisons made between President Lincoln and President Juarez of Mexico during most of the speeches were very favorably received.

The reception given by Mrs. Johnson for Mrs. Diaz Ordaz was attended by 500 to 600 persons, including the Congressional delegation from the United States and the other prominent American officials who had not returned to the United States aboard President Johnson's plane, as well as by most of the higher officials of the Mexican Government and many of the leaders of the American business colony in Mexico

Point 1

The Mexico City Office has continued to furnish the Bureau with monthly intelligence summaries containing pertinent information concerning the political scene in Mexico since the submission of referenced letter.

The Mexican Government continues to show a friendly but undemonstrative attitude toward the United States. During the visit to Mexico of President and Mrs. LYNDON B. JOHNSON in April 1966, an enthusiastic crowd of over one million people turned out to greet them.

President GUSTAVO DIAZ ORDAZ of Mexico, in his speech of welcome, eulogized ABRAHAM LINCOLN (Mrs. LYNDON B. JOHNSON unveiled a statue of ABRAHAM LINCOLN which was donated by the United States to Mexico in April 1966), coupling his name with his Mexican contemporary, BENITO JUAREZ, former President of Mexico, and stressed the excellent nature of the ties which bind the two nations.

President DIAZ ORDAZ recognized the existence of problems, great and small, past and present, between the United States and Mexico, but he called upon his people to look to the future and to forget the rancors of the past, pointing to the day when the relationships of all nations might be comparable to the fine relationship which exists between the United States and Mexico.

During the visit to Mexico of President and Mrs. LYNDON B. JOHNSON, police maintained close vigilance over the activities of communist-oriented groups and thwarted all attempts by the Communist Party of Mexico (PCM) and other communist-oriented groups to foment anti-United States activities.

The PCM and the Popular Socialist Party (PPS) have agreed to cooperate in matters of mutual interest. The PPS has candidates for political office [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The PCM has indicated that it will support PPS candidates in the coming elections and has instructed its members in the People's Electoral Front (FEP), the Independent Peasants Central (CCI), the Revolutionary Teachers Movement (MRM), and the National Confederation of Railroad Workers (CNF) to actively support PPS candidates throughout Mexico.

President DIAZ ORDAZ continues to demonstrate an anticommunist attitude. [REDACTED]

Point 2

The PCM and the PPS, working in concert, called a meeting of communist-oriented groups on February 6, 1966, at Mexico, DF. The PCM and the PPS used this meeting to outline the resolutions and the programs formulated during the course of the First Tri-Continental Conference, held at Havana, Cuba, January 3-15, 1966. Among those resolutions were resolutions to hold weeks of solidarity with Vietnam and the Dominican Republic.

The PCM-PPS-sponsored Week of Solidarity with Vietnam was held in Mexico March 12-20, 1966. About 4,000 to 5,000 individuals representing communist-oriented groups in Mexico participated in a demonstration on March 17, 1966, in support of the Week of Solidarity with Vietnam. They marched along a predesignated route shouting anti-United States statements and carrying signs critical of the United States policies in Vietnam. Demonstrators also burned two simulated flags of the United States. Police officers, however, maintained order, and the demonstrators were not permitted near the United States Embassy in Mexico City.

The Week of Solidarity with the Dominican Republic was scheduled for April 24-30, 1966. Because of a conflict between the PCM and the National Liberation Movement (MLN) over the Mexican delegates to the First Tri-Continental Conference, neither the PCM nor the PPS supported the Week of Solidarity with the Dominican Republic. Activities during that week were directed by the MLN, and little enthusiastic public response was elicited by the MLN.

The PCM leadership planned in November 1965 to reorganize the National Central of Democratic Students (CNED). A constituent congress of the CNED was held in April 1966, and leaders of the PCM youth organization, the Communist Youth of Mexico (JCM), were elected to offices of leadership in the CNED, including that of president. The CNED claims to have 75,000 student supporters throughout Mexico. It quickly tested its strength by calling an anti-United States, pro-Cuban demonstration on June 10, 1966, at Mexico, DF. About 2,000 students, including four busloads from UNAM and one busload from the National Polytechnic Institute, responded to the call. Police, however, dispersed all attempts to organize this demonstration.

Because of the recent reorganization of the CNED, it is too early to predict the degree of control the PCM will maintain over its activities. It is expected, however, that the CNED will be used for anti-United States demonstrations and for support of international communist front activities.
